God gives it all - then calls us to share

Spirit. Mind. Body.
We want to learn a little bit more about our parishioners. In particular, we want to know what you think about the health of your mind, body and spirit, so that we can be aware of and better serve your needs.

Our Health Ministry, under the leadership of Dr. Garry Fitzgerald, has arranged for our parish to participate in a CHI Franciscan survey. The results of the survey will help us plan health and spiritual programs and activities of interest to you and your family. For example, if survey results indicate that Prayer and Forgiveness are the top Spiritual concerns, we'll explore activities and services that address Prayer and Forgiveness. Likewise, if one of the major health concerns relates to End of Life Decisions or Affording Health Care, we'll take steps to help address those concerns.

We're grateful to CHI Franciscan for offering to produce and share this survey with us. It is in line with our Parish Priorities of Education and Keeping our Community Vibrant. You'll have your chance to participate next weekend, October 21 - 22, after all Masses, or you can download the survey in the next edition of The Cornerstone, fill it out and bring it to Mass.

Sunday Evening Mass
We celebrated our first evening Mass last Sunday. Father Kyle Mangloña, from St. Charles Borromeo Catholic Church led nearly 200 people in celebration of the Eucharist. While there were quite a few familiar faces filling the pews, there were numerous guests from other parishes in the Tacoma area and many who are not currently part of a parish faith community. It is a wonderful show of unity for Catholics, Christians and seekers from other religions, from communities in Tacoma and Pierce County to come together in worship. Join us, invite a friend, especially perhaps, someone who hasn't been to Mass in awhile. This evening setting might be just what they need to re-kindle the flame of faith. All are welcome.

St. Patrick - Pray for Us!

Kevin Lovejoy
Pastoral Coordinator

SAINT PATRICK CATHOLIC CHURCH & SCHOOL

Name Tag Weekend

The second of our three Parish Values calls us to Grow in Faith: that "*Jesus, the Father's great love shared with us, calls us to a deeper personal relationship with Him and to authentic relationships with one another".
Truly authentic relationships (not just cordial, polite ones) can only develop when we know each other "by name". We have all experienced occasions when we've avoided conversation because we can't remembers someone's name. Conversely, we've all experienced the joy of being called by our name - thinking to ourselves - "he/she knows me"!

Two stories in the Bible reveal the significance of names.
In Isaiah 43:1 God says "I have called you by name."
*In John 20:16 - Mary Magdalene converses with the Risen Jesus but fails to recognize Him until he calls her by name - "Mary".

Names are important, they are very personal and can be the starting point to authentic relationships. That's why we're asking our parish to overcome that initial reluctance we may have to open ourselves up, to be a little vulnerable, to say I'm willing to meet someone new today, and call them by name.

So today, get to know someone new, or a little better, by calling them by name.

Now through November 17th,
there will be some of our parish children receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time.
A few families will come to the Church
each week at 3:30 p.m.
This is the regular time for the Sacrament of Reconciliation at St. Patrick

We trust that there will be ample time for everyone who desires to receive the sacrament.

a wooden cross necklace.
This was placed on them by their parents
on the day of the Covenant of Faith.
This is to signify their journey this year
as they prepare to receive the sacraments.
Please keep these families in your prayers.

but the immensely merciful Father."
