Where the Mystery of God meets the Mystery of the Child

“Bethlehem - the fire of God’s love!” Nikki announces enthusiastically as she is shown the topographical map of the Land of Israel. The handful of children, ages 3-7, warmly received this proclamation and all agree, nodding with joyful conviction. The week prior this same group had seen the globe. The presentation, using a sandpaper globe, emphasized that Jesus was a real man who lived on this earth in a particular place, at a particular point in time-- the tiny land of Israel where God revealed the depth of his eternal love for us. The group leaned in closely to see the tiny red dot where God changed our world forever. The profundity is made only more solemn as the children reflect and respond to this mystery.

The children in the atrium (the name of the space where the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd takes place) live a rhythm of prayer and work as they encounter Jesus in each weekly 2 hour session. The adults who have the privilege of being in this space with the children, also enter into this rhythm. The adult’s role is that of match maker, showing children materials and stepping out of the way for the only true teacher, the Holy Spirit, giving children space to pray and work at their pace.

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd has slowly grown at St. Patrick and in our Archdiocese over the last 21 years. The St. Patrick atrium averages 60-85 children per year. This year, 67 children are enrolled. One child, one encounter at a time. Like the parable of the mustard seed, we invest energy, tending to small seeds, trusting that God will see to it that the seed becomes a tree one day. Subjects include biblical geography, prayer, infancy narratives, sacraments.... to name but a few. Each theme developed over the span of 9 years, slowly deepening and expanding the child’s understanding of our faith. We like to hold the vision of the child as walking into the atrium at age 3 with an open heart and an absorbent mind, and walking out 9 years later with an understanding of liturgy and scripture embedded deeply within them, having touched and pondered so much.

We welcome children, ages 3-12, and youth and adults who desire to assist in our sacred space. Contact the Parish Office anytime to set up an observation.

May our Good Shepherd bless you as we prepare to enter the ‘waiting season’ of Advent.

The cast of characters is strange and exotic:
shepherds and magicians, an emperor and a despot, angels,
and a baby who is Almighty God.

The strangeness calls for an explanation, and this book provides it by examining the characters and the story in light of the biblical and historical context.

Bestselling author Scott Hahn, who has written extensively on Scripture and the early Church, brings evidence to light, dispelling some of the mystery of the story.

Yet Christmas is made familiar all over again by showing it to be a family story.

Christmas, as it appears in the New Testament, is the story of a father, a mother, and a child -- their relationships, their interactions, their principals, their individual lives, and their common life.

To see the life of their "earthly trinity" is to gaze into heaven.

Join us for warm fellowship - to delve deeper into the Christmas story, and the beloved family on which it is based.

Bring a friend - all are welcome!

SOCIAL JUSTICE

THE FACE OF HOMELESSNESS: Not just those living on the street or in abandoned buildings are homeless. People who currently have no permanent housing, such as living in shelters, SRO's, doubled up with another family, in shelters or transitional housing, will lose their housing (i.e. eviction), and those fleeing an unsafe environment (i.e. domestic violence) are also considered to be homeless.

We live in one of the most affluent countries in the world and should be appalled by the number of homeless in our country. As Christians and Americans we need to come together to find a solution to the problem, but until we find that solution we need to help alleviate as much of their suffering as we can.

Jesus said, "Whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me." (Mt. 25:40)

There is a basket on the back table where we are collecting winter clothing (hats, scarves, gloves, sweaters and warm socks) to help the homeless.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR ADVERTISER OF THE MONTH:

JOHN L. MESSINA, ATTORNEY

Celebrating Children at St. Patrick and St. Rita

To the parents of our young children, may we suggest...

- Relax! God put the wiggle in children; Don't feel you have to suppress it in God's house. All are welcome!
- Do prepare your child ahead of time by modeling joy at the opportunity to worship God in this community.
- Sit up front where it is easier to see and hear.
- Quietly explain the parts of the Mass.
- Sing the hymns loudly, pray, and voice the responses with enthusiasm. Children learn liturgical behavior by copying you.
- If your child becomes particularly disruptive, feel free to leave Mass, but please come back. As Jesus said: "Let the children come to me."
- Trust the environment of the Mass and our community to form your child over time.
- Please do not bring food or drink into the church unless they are medically indicated. Please do not bring electronic Games into Church.

To the members of the parish...

- Remember that the way we welcome children in Church directly affects the way they respond to the Church, to God and to one another. Let them know that they are loved and appreciated in this house of worship.
- A smile of encouragement is always welcome to parents with small, active children. The presence of children is a gift to the church, they give us a "Future Full of Hope".
