PASTOR'S LETTER

Dr. Bob Schuchts

Sr. Miriam James
Heidland,
SOLT

Dear Friends in Christ,

When I arrived back here in Tacoma last July, I told you that for over the past five years, I have had the privilege to work with the amazing people at the John Paul II Healing Center in Tallahassee, Florida. I have attended and served on many of the retreats and conferences for lay people and priests led by Dr. Bob Schuchts, his brother Bart Schuchts, and Sr. Miriam James Heidland, SOLT. These conferences have not only been helpful to me personally, but I have seen first hand the tangible impact they have had to those who attend. In short, these retreats are transformative!

How are these retreats and conferences transformative? Well, Dr. Bob Schuchts has developed a teaching and prayer format that is based upon sacred scripture, the teachings and the Catechism of the Catholic Church, and the grace of the sacraments that enables us to open our hearts to the healing power of the Lord Jesus. This focused time away from the pressures of daily life, enables us to see ourselves (the root or core of our very being) as God sees us....the good, the bad, the ugly, and the beautiful. If we invite the Lord Jesus into these places of our lives, then His grace brings about transformation. Doubt, anxiety, fear, and discouragement melt away to faithfulness, confidence, affirmation, and freedom. This happens when we open ourselves up to the healing and joy that the Lord desires for EACH of us, His sons and daughters...no exceptions!

In my first week with you last year, I shared with you my top quotes, one of which comes from Pope Benedict XVI: "Healing is an essential dimension of the apostolic mission and of Christianity. When understood at a sufficiently deep level, this expresses the entire content of redemption." My friends, the Lord Jesus desires our healing; He desires our wholeness and freedom; He came that we might have life and have it in abundance! Everything about our Catholic faith is about healing...yet we are often indifferent. Why not claim that which is ours?

This coming August 1, 2 and 3 we are blessed with the opportunity to have Dr. Bob, Bart, and Sr. Miriam present the Healing the Whole Person Retreat at Holy Cross Parish, with the added bonus of Bart presenting a workshop called a Day of Equipping, in which we open up ourselves more deeply to the love of our Heavenly Father. For the low cost of $100 (thanks to a donation from a parishioner reducing early registration from $135), you can attend the Thursday evening, Friday evening, and Saturday conferences, along with a workbook and journal that will be of use to you for years to come. I still use my first workbook from a 2014 retreat! The Day of Equipping fee is an additional $40. You register online at JPIIHealingCenter.org and use the parish discount code of: HWPParishTacomaWA at check out to receive your parish discount. Reminder cards with more information are in the vestibules of all our churches. If you need financial assistance or have any questions, please contact Kim Ward at: 253-383-2783. ext. 4108.

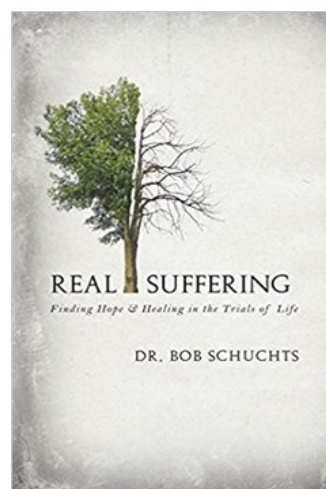

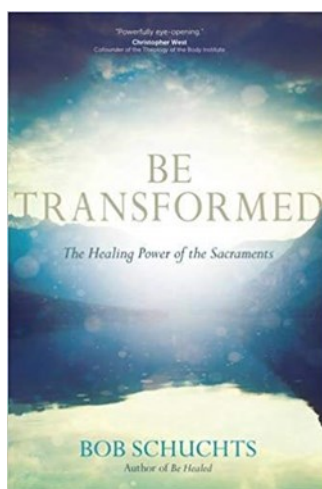

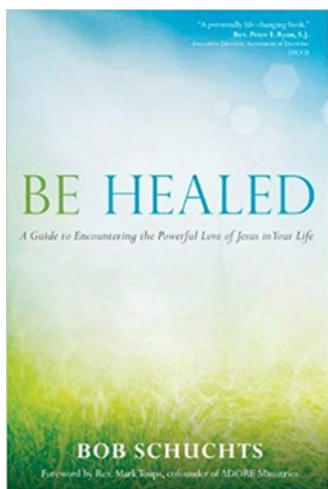

There is one catch: you do need to register now! The John Paul II Healing Center is a national ministry. So, people from all around the country, especially from our region, will be attending the retreat at Holy Cross Parish. So space will fill up fast. So please register today or this week. I asked Dr. Bob Schuchts and the team to come to my new parishes because I want you to know that I know; I want you to experience what I have experienced on this retreat! I want you to live in the freedom of your identity as a beloved son or daughter of the Father....and receive all that the Lord desires for you!

Many blessings,

Fr. David Mulholland

THE ARCHDIOCESE OF SEATTLE WELCOMES COADJUTOR ARCHBISHOP PAUL D. ETIENNE

On April 29, Archbishop J. Peter Sartain welcomed the appointment of Archbishop Paul D. Etienne, currently archbishop of Anchorage, Alaska, as coadjutor archbishop of Seattle. Archbishop Etienne was appointed by Pope Francis to eventually succeed Archbishop Sartain, who requested a coadjutor archbishop due to ongoing health challenges. He will officially join the archdiocese as coadjutor archbishop on June 7, 2019, at a "Rite of Reception" Mass in St. James Cathedral.

INTRODUCING ARCHBISHOP ETIENNE

Archbishop Etienne was born to a large Catholic family in Tell City, Indiana. He is one of six children and has two brothers who are Catholic priests, as well as sister who is a Benedictine nun.

He is currently the fourth archbishop for the Archdiocese of Anchorage where he was installed November 9, 2016, after serving as bishop of the Diocese of Cheyenne, Wyoming, for seven years.

Archbishop Etienne studied at Bellarmine College in Louisville, Kentucky; the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, Minnesota; and the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome, where he earned a Licentiate of Spiritual Theology in 1995.

On June 27, 1992, he was ordained a priest in the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, where he served as pastor of several parishes, vocation director and vice-rector of the Bishop Simon Bruté College Seminary.

On October 19, 2009, he was appointed bishop of the Diocese of Cheyenne by Pope Benedict XVI. He served there until October 4, 2016, when he was appointed Archbishop of Anchorage by Pope Francis.

You can read more from Archbishop Etienne on his blog: www.archbishopetienne.com.

WHAT IS A COADJUTOR BISHOP

A coadjutor bishop is appointed to a diocese or archdiocese to assist the diocesan bishop. Unlike an auxiliary bishop, he has the right of succession, meaning that he automatically becomes the new bishop when the diocesan bishop retires or dies. By canon law, he is also vicar general of the diocese. If the diocese is an archdiocese, he is called coadjutor archbishop instead of coadjutor bishop.
