Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The above photo captures the exact moment that Fr. Tyler Johnson was ordained a priest last Saturday at Saint James Cathedral. Many years ago, Fr. Tyler was a young student attending Saint Mary Parish in Centralia when I was the pastor there. He was quite, shy and reserved. He played the guitar a few times at the Saturday Vigil Mass. In the years after, he became the youth minister for all the parishes in Lewis County. It was then he discovered his gifts for pastoral ministry and his call to be a priest. Fr. Tyler was formed these past years at the North American College in Rome and I have watched him blossom into an outgoing, energetic, and faith filled young man, with a focus and zeal for the Gospel. He is going to be an awesome priest! Saint Mary Parish has given the local Church at least four priests, two in the last ten years. Not bad! We too need to inspire the God given vocations in our communities as well. If God inspires to you tell a young man that he might be a good priest, then by all means say so! If you see a young woman or man that may have the calling for religious life, then let them know. You may be the one to plant just the right seed of God's call. That's how Fr. Tyler was inspired to begin praying about his vocation. And now he begins his priestly ministry. Please pray for him and for all of us priests. We cannot live this life without your prayerful care and support.

The ordinations last week caused me to reflect on my 17 years of priestly life. I thought about how much I have changed since I first encountered a very young Fr. Tyler. I am not (happily so!) the same priest then that I am now. In the years since, I have experienced the fruit of significant healing, growth, formation, and transformation. God the Father indeed has been so good to me! These words of Fr. Robert Schwartz capture my thoughts well:

“The holiness and humanness of the priest is the deepest source of his authority. The person of the priest is the “substantial bread” of the Sacrament of Holy Orders. Personal development and the personal quest for God make the priest credible in the sight of the faithful.”

As I said above, we priests need you, the holy people of God, to help us in our healing and development, so that we may be “credible in the sight of the faithful.” In a Church short on credibility these days, it is all the more important. May we together advance the mission of the Lord Jesus in a spirit of mutual prayer, care, and support. And “let us keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, who inspires and perfects our faith.” Hebrews 12:2

Blessings for the week ahead!

Fr. David Mulholland

SUMMER CLIMB 2019

In his book, Visible Learning, researcher John Hattie explores what teaching strategies or school programs make a statistically significant difference in student learning. His research suggests that while intentional academic summer work has only mild positive effects on student achievement, it does significantly reduce the academic slide that often occurs in the summer months.

In other words, researchers find that there is less time spent in the first month of school repeating old content in schools that have a structured summer learning program.

Our hope is that by engaging students in minimal but consistent summer reading and math, we will have them more ready to successfully begin school in September.

We want all of our students to excel, to be challenged, to feel success.

We want our kids to be kids and enjoy their summer vacation.

It is our hope that we found the right balance between rest and relaxation and keeping their minds alert.

We hope you climb real mountains this summer and encourage your children to use their summer to climb to even greater heights in reading and math.

Enjoy the pace of summer and your time together with your children.

Chris Gavin
