The Good Samaritan

Friends,

If one were to peek inside the atrium (home of the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, located in the basement of St. Patrick Parish Center) you would discover something that the children have taught us: There is nothing ordinary about Ordinary Time in our Liturgical season. These “green weeks” are our Growing Season. And how do we grow? We learn about Jesus’ teachings, think and pray together with the Word of God and the materials in the atrium, and allow this experience to form us as Catholic Christians.

As the children mature and when they display a readiness for critical thinking skills, we introduce them to the moral parables. This weekend’s Gospel reading, The Good Samaritan, is a greatly loved lesson for our 6-9 year old groups. Together we listen to Jesus’ directive to treat others with mercy and think what this means for our own lives.

How grateful we are for summer days as the daily rhythm shifts for us in the atrium. For the children in the atrium and for a catechist who serves in the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, the summer months are a time to update or refresh materials, to receive further formation, or to simply enjoy these days as we allow the ground of our souls to lie fallow. The shift in focus for the summer is important to our growth because what happens in a field allowed to fallow is revitalization for future seasons. And what’s true for God’s land is true for God’s people. This is our ‘growing’ for the summer.

We always welcome visitors to the atrium, no matter what time of year. Come see us! You may be surprised at the ways God might be calling you to grow.

‘Ordinary Time’ blessings to each and every one of you,

Kim Ward

CALLED TO SERVE as CHRIST

— A campaign for our —
PRIESTS, SISTERS & FAMILY OF FAITH

Dear Parishioners,

As you may know, the Archdiocese of Seattle is currently engaged in the Called to Serve as Christ campaign. This landmark campaign is the product of years of study and hard work by clergy, lay leaders, Archbishop Sartain, and archdiocesan staff. All 170 parishes and missions in our Archdiocese will take part in this historic $100 million multi-phased campaign. The focus of the campaign is to strengthen our priest retirement and medical plans, to support our women religious, including their retirement needs, and to assist our parishes. Detailed information about the campaign goals will be sent to every parish household in the months ahead.

This campaign has already been underway in other parts of the Archdiocese. Our three parishes, along with 47 others in what is known as “Wave 2019”, have begun preparations to participate in this campaign starting this summer. I want to express my sincere gratitude to our campaign co-chairs: Bob Bruback - Saint Patrick; Janice Stauffer - Holy Cross; and Debbie Orlando and Jim and MJ Lockemy - Saint Rita; for stepping up to lead us through this campaign.

Many volunteers are needed to help Bob, Janice, Debbie, Jim and MJ lead our parishes through a successful campaign. There are a variety of volunteer tasks in which any and everybody is capable of assisting in some manner. If you are interested in volunteering and helping our parish in this landmark effort, and want to learn more about the details of the Called to Serve as Christ campaign please join us this Tuesday, July 16th, 6:30pm at Holy Cross in Tacoma. An overview of the campaign and an explanation of the needs it will serve for our retired priests and religious, and how it will be conducted in our parishes will be provided, along with light refreshments. Bring a friend with you; the more volunteers, the better! If you are interested in volunteering but cannot make the meeting, please contact the parish office.

In Christ the Lord,

Fr David Mulholland

Called to Serve as Christ Campaign

THE TIME TO ANSWER CHRIST'S CALL TO SERVE IS NOW

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Called to Serve as Christ campaign is an expression of thanks for the hundreds of senior priests and sisters still with us and for whom we have the responsibility to offer care and sustenance. It is also an expression of hope in the young clergy and sisters who do not yet see retirement on the horizon, and those who will come long after them. God is good and faithful to every generation.

I am excited and humbled to lead and contribute to the Called to Serve as Christ campaign, and I offer my encouragement to all of you to join me in this groundbreaking, historic endeavor. To be grateful for both our past and future is something we can do with certainty and hope – because God is good and faithful, because his Son Jesus will never cease to issue his call, and because the Holy Spirit will never cease to tend the Father's garden with love, holiness, and wisdom.

Sincerely in Christ,

+ J. Peter Sartain

+J. Peter Sartain
Archbishop of Seattle

WHAT WILL OUR CAMPAIGN ACCOMPLISH?

The Archdiocese of Seattle initiated a $100 million campaign to provide long-term funding for retirement and medical needs of priests and women religious, as well as support of individual parishes. After this campaign, the Archdiocese hopes to:

- Establish a stronger position to provide a consistent, modest retirement for priests by moving from a pay-as-you-go system to a fully-funded model for priest pension plan and medical benefit for retired priests.
- Increase the ability of women religious communities to care for their senior members while continuing their ministry to God's people.
- Provide parishes more resources for their local ministries, services, works and programs.
- Lead by example in prayer, action, and generosity.
- Reinforce a dynamic faith for the next generation of Catholics in Western Washington.

CALLED TO SERVE as CHRIST

A campaign for our
PRIESTS, SISTERS & FAMILY OF FAITH

I am grateful to him who has strengthened me, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he considered me trustworthy in appointing me to the ministry. – 1 Timothy 1:12

Liturgy Line News

THE WORK OF THE PEOPLE

Dear Friends,

You're invited to a very special celebration! Each week, we come together in this beautiful church to attend this greatest of banquets, our Catholic Mass. We are invited to do so by the greatest and most gracious of hosts, our Lord Jesus Christ.

He doesn't invite us to simply arrive and sit passively in our pews waiting for the priest to lead us through our rituals. I know that I've been known to follow along, say all the prayers in all the right places, sing along with our wonderful musicians and yet not be at all engaged in the liturgy. I am very comfortable in the ritual that is such a beautiful part of our tradition and sometimes I get complacent allowing my mind to drift away from God and the Mass. But that's not the intention of liturgy. The word liturgy itself calls us to action, to full participation, to responsibility. The word liturgy defined actually means "the work of the people." Our God wants us to actively participate, to be fully engaged in our prayers and responses, to be a part of this great mystery of our Mass.

Children

What does that mean? For some of our younger parishioners, it might mean being an altar server. Assisting our priests as they perform their duties and responsibilities or passing out bulletins at the end of our service so that we have the information we need to navigate our many parish activities.

Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion

For some it's the great honor of being an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion (Eucharistic Minister) literally, in the true sense of the word, literally giving someone Jesus in body and blood. That can feel overwhelming. We can ask ourselves if we are worthy. But it's not about being worthy. It's about answering the call. It's about service—service to God and to our brothers and sisters in faith. Literally giving someone Jesus.

Lectors

Others might participate as a lector. Not a reader, there's a difference. Our lectors don't read us scripture, they proclaim the Word of God. They have strong voices that help us experience God's holy word, not just hear it, so that we can turn that word inward and find direction and comfort from it. Our leaders of Children's Liturgy of the Word provide our young people the opportunity to do that at their own level.

Music

Many offer the gift of their musical talent, helping us pray through song, at one moment creating a feeling of joy, and the next moving us to solemn prayer.

Greeters

Our greeters are the first faces that people see as they walk through the doors. They are friendly, welcoming individuals who let each person who comes to our celebrations know that they are valued and important.

Ushers

Our ushers show up a little early each week to be sure that we are prepared, to help us find a seat, to assist with collections and the offertory, and to move our celebrations along in an orderly fashion so that those of us in the pews may focus on our prayer.

Attend Mass

For some of us, our job at liturgy is simply to sit in the pews and pray—to pray for our liturgical ministers, to pray for our priests and our deacons. To pray for our community and our world. This is no minor role.

Serve

If liturgy is the work of the people, then that means we are the workers. We are by definition invited to active participation in the liturgy of the Word and of the Eucharist.

The invitation is to continue to come to Mass, to be engaged in the liturgy and to consider how else we might participate in the work of the people. If you feel called to any of this work, please catch me after Mass or call me in the parish office. I'd love to help you discern your ministry to this beautiful community of faith. If you are feeling that call to a particular ministry, but think that you have some physical barrier that would prevent you from doing so, talk to me before deciding that it isn't possible. Together, we might just be able to find a way for you to serve.

Yours in Christ,

SUMMER CLIMB 2019

In his book, Visible Learning, researcher John Hattie explores what teaching strategies or school programs make a statistically significant difference in student learning. His research suggests that while intentional academic summer work has only mild positive effects on student achievement, it does significantly reduce the academic slide that often occurs in the summer months.

In other words, researchers find that there is less time spent in the first month of school repeating old content in schools that have a structured summer learning program.

Our hope is that by engaging students in minimal but consistent summer reading and math, we will have them more ready to successfully begin school in September.

We want all of our students to excel, to be challenged, to feel success.

We want our kids to be kids and enjoy their summer vacation.

It is our hope that we found the right balance between rest and relaxation and keeping their minds alert.

We hope you climb real mountains this summer and encourage your children to use their summer to climb to even greater heights in reading and math.

Enjoy the pace of summer and your time together with your children.

Chris Gavin

Look for summer climb lists under academics on our website.
